

The AIG travel insurance policy has been amended to address certain situations pertaining to COVID-19. This means that for some benefits, cover is expanded to include losses occurring after COVID-19 was a known event and could reasonably have been expected to lead to a claim (which otherwise could have been excluded as set out in the General Exclusions section of your policy).

The COVID-19 Endorsement will attach to and form part of your policy if you purchased Essential Shield or Comprehensive Shield plan. This COVID-19 coverage is not available for Basic Shield plan.

The policy will cover and we will pay up to the amount shown in the table below (or where applicable, in the schedule of benefits in your policy) for claims relating directly to COVID-19, subject to the terms and exclusions of your policy.
